Participants of the 2nd pension pillar who have been added to 2nd pension pillar scheme on mandatory basis (persons born after 1 July 1971 and are socially insured) and participants who have joined voluntarily may change the fund manager once per calendar year.

Investment plans managed by the same fund manager may be changed twice per calendar year.

The investment plan has to be selected according to their age and duration of participation in the 2nd pension pillar.

Following the receipt of an application from a person, the State Social Insurance Agency shall ensure transfer of the capital accrued in the 2nd pension pillar from the current to the new investment plan.
