The statement shall contain information regarding deductions made by the State Social Insurance Agency (SSIA) from the pension, benefit or remuneration to be paid.

Deductions from services to the SSSAA shall be made by recovering overpayments of social insurance services, public social benefits or retirement pensions, or by executing judgments of the court or other authorities regarding the collection of debts, payment of administrative penalties, etc.

The information is available for the period from 1 June 2011.

The www.latvija.lv portal restores the data once a week.
