Process description

Service requests

A pensioner's certificate may be requested in any Chapter of the SAA by producing a personal identification document (passport or identity card). If the pensioner's certificate is requested by the authorised representative of the person, a mandate shall be submitted.

A photograph of the recipient of the pensioner's certificate (3 x 4 cm) must be submitted.

If the VSAA contains a photograph of the recipient of the pension, the application for the receipt of the pensioner's certificate may also be submitted by post or e-mail, signed with a secure electronic signature containing the time stamp.

When requesting a pensioner's certificate again, the application shall state the grounds for requesting a repeat.

Receipt of services

A pensioner's certificate may be obtained on the spot, presenting a personal identification document and a mandate, if the authorised representative of the person receives the certificate.

If the request for a certificate is submitted in the presence of the SAA, the certificate may also be obtained by letter registered in the mail.
