After registration of the fact of death of a participant of the 2nd pension pillar and taking into account the choice made by the deceased participant of the 2nd pension pillar and their funded pension capital, the State Social Insurance Agency (SSIA):

- adds the specified persons to the funded pension capital after the registration date of the fact of death of the deceased participant of the 2nd pension pillar with SSIA;
- pays to the heirs in accordance with the procedures laid down in the Civil Law after receiving an inheritance certificate and an application to SSIA. Heirs may decide whether to receive this capital in cash by transferring it to the specified account, or to add it to their 2nd pension pillar capital.
